Brian Pavlet is one of the premier showmen in power golf exhibitions. His unbelievable blasts create a sensation wherever he appears, wowing the guests of the many corporations, charities and country clubs that have booked his services.

Brian's personality is as awesome as his drive. He can electrify any audience with his amazing shots and bullet-like power. An outing featuring Brian becomes a memory that resonates long after the actual event.

In addition to his amazing power performance and wide repertoire of trick shots, Brian imparts power tips and sound swing advice to his audience who often interact in his show.
